UA-PTC Health Information Technology (HIT)

Program Level	Program Name	Modality	State	Agency Name	Website URL	UA-PTC Program Contact Information	Disclosure
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Alabama	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Alaska	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Arizona	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	California	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Colorado	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Connecticut	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.

UA-PTC Health Information Technology (HIT)

Program Level	Program Name	Modality	State	Agency Name	Website URL	UA-PTC Program Contact Information	Disclosure
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Delaware	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	District of Columbia	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Florida	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Georgia	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Hawaii	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Idaho	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.

UA-PTC Health Information Technology (HIT)

Program Level	Program Name	Modality	State	Agency Name	Website URL	UA-PTC Program Contact Information	Disclosure
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Illinois	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Indiana	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Iowa	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Kansas	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Kentucky	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Louisiana	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.

UA-PTC Health Information Technology (HIT)

Program Level	Program Name	Modality	State	Agency Name	Website URL	UA-PTC Program Contact Information	Disclosure
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Maine	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Maryland	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Massachusetts	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Michigan	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Minnesota	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Mississippi	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.

UA-PTC Health Information Technology (HIT)

Program Level	Program Name	Modality	State	Agency Name	Website URL	UA-PTC Program Contact Information	Disclosure
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Missouri	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Montana	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Nebraska	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Nevada	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	New Hampshire	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	New Jersey	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.

UA-PTC Health Information Technology (HIT)

Program Level	Program Name	Modality	State	Agency Name	Website URL	UA-PTC Program Contact Information	Disclosure
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	New Mexico	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	New York	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	North Carolina	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	North Dakota	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Ohio	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Oklahoma	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.

UA-PTC Health Information Technology (HIT)

Program Level	Program Name	Modality	State	Agency Name	Website URL	UA-PTC Program Contact Information	Disclosure
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Oregon	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Pennsylvania	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Puerto Rico	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Rhode Island	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	South Carolina	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	South Dakota	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.

UA-PTC Health Information Technology (HIT)

Program Level	Program Name	Modality	State	Agency Name	Website URL	UA-PTC Program Contact Information	Disclosure
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Tennessee	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Texas	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Utah	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Vermont	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Virgin Islands	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Virginia	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.

UA-PTC Health Information Technology (HIT)

Program Level	Program Name	Modality	State	Agency Name	Website URL	UA-PTC Program Contact Information	Disclosure
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Washington	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	West Virginia	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Wisconsin	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.
Associates Degree	Health and Information Technology	98% Online	Wyoming	AHIMA	https://www.ahima.org/certification-careers/certifications-overview/rhit	Bryce Miller, Program Director Email: bdmiller@uaptc.edu Phone: 501-812-2349	UA-PTC's Health Information Technology (HIT) Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). Students in this program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) Certification. This is a national certification and is recognized by all states; however, holding certification is not required to work in the HIT field.